

Retirement Fund for Religious

Sister Dorothy Bucko, 80, pictured above in 1969 and 2011, was drawn to religious life by the sisters who taught at her high school. She entered her congregation in 1949 and served as a teacher and principal for many years. On weekends, she played the organ at Mass and led the children's choir. Augustinian Father Ronald Turcich, 81, pictured in 1958 and 2011, began his journey in religious life more than 60 years ago. Ordained in 1958, he spent some 30 years as an educator and administrator in Catholic schools before moving into parish ministry. Today, she still plays the organ, and he still celebrates Mass every weekend.

Sister Dorothy and Father Ron, and thousands of senior religious like them, worked for years for small stipends. Their sacrifices now leave a substantial gap in retirement funding. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious provides much-needed support for prescription medications, nursing care, and more.

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

Share in the Care

www.retiredreligious.org

Ninety-three percent of every donation to the National Religious Retirement Office aids senior religious.

