SENIOR'S FRESHMEN

REPORT NEWS

The Senior Class is now looking forward to the 24th of May--Graduation Day. We have all received our announcements and have mailed them.

On Monday, May 13, the seniors Mr. Kempf, and Mr. and Mrs. Bechtold went out for supper at the Fireside Inn.

The seniors want to thank the juniors for having such a delicious banquet and lovely prom.

We have had a few class meetings to decide whether or not to have a sock-hop.

We are all studying and reviewing so that we can pass our final tests.

In English I we are giving speeches and pantomining.

CLASS OF 58' TEN YEARS LATER

JOLLY JUNIOR'S

NEWS

We've been real busy the past six weeks preparing our selves for our 1968 Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet. It turned out to be very successful.

We want to take this opportunity to thank the mothers and every one who helped us put on this prom.

Other than working on the prom, we haven't really been busy.

SILLY SOPHOMORES

SAY!

In English we are writing paragraphs which build our writing ability. We are also finishing our oral book reports.

Our Biology class has finished its studies on the human body. We are now studying the effects of alcohol and tobacco on the body.

That's all for this time. Have a wonderful summer. See you all next year.

On May 22, 1958, ten seniors from Sykeston High School received their diplomas of graduation. After ten years, all have settled down, have a good business, and have families.

The valedictorian of the class, Jerry Sandag, attended college at Valley City State Teacher's College for six years. After graduation, Jerry married Karla Tesch from Cathay on August 22, 1964. They have two children. Mr. Sandag has been a teacher at Cathay since graduation. He is principal, teaches math, and coaches the Cathay Trojans.

Arlo Neumiller, salutatorian went to MDSU and majored in dentistry. He then married Sonja Skadberg from Carrington. They have one son, Joel. Arlo is presently practicing his dentistry in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Florence Stahl married Loren Neumilth of Mandan on November 19, 1961. They have two children, one son and one daughter. Florence went to Interstate Business College at Fargo for four months. She did book work at KXJB-TV in Fargo for three years. After she was married, she worked at "Honeywell" for two years at Minneapolis as a special typist. Florence's husband is in statistical research.

Richard Kelly helped his father after graduation. He has been married to Judy Kallberg from Harrington for three years. Presently, Richard is working in Seattle at the Union Pacific RR. He is the father of one son.

Residing in California, Della Garmen is married to Jack Markowski who is a Civil Engineer in Vietnam. They have two children, a son and a daughter.

John Merck enlisted in the Army with the medical corps after graduation and served in Europe at Stuttgart, Germany for eighteen months before he returned home to his family at Rapid City, S.D. He then entered the National College of Business at Rapid City for two years where he took up bookkeeping and computers. Upon leaving college, he managed the house of Pizze for two years. He then married Jacqueline Moass, and together they managed the Pizza house for two more years. Then John and his brother Jim purchased property at Aberdeen and opened a house there. After two years of a successful business, a party bought them out and John and his family moved to Denver, Colorado, where he took up refrigeration and now works at a "7&11" Store in Denver.

Larry Schander went to college at Whapeton State School of Science and went to Oregon afterward. He is presently employed in Kennewick, Oregon, as assistant manager of a store. Larry is married and is the father of one child.

Jerry Kutz attended North Dakota State University for one year upon graduation from high school and enlisted in the Navy and served for two years. Upon discharge from the service Jerry went to Minneapolis where he now resides and is the assistant manager at the Murphy Express. Jerry is not married but is still looking.

Richard Bernard graduated from Valley City State Teachers College in December, 1961, and entered the U.S. Army infantry at Fort Carson, Colorado. After serving for 21 months Dick began his teaching career on his discharge from the service. He taught at Hallock, Minn., and Elgin, N. Dak. each for one year. In 1963 he married Barbara who is from Valley City and she passed away in 1965, leaving Dick with one son who is now four years old. He has not remarried. Presently Dick is teaching geography on the junior high school level at Anoka-Hennepin School District in suburban Minneapolis. He has taught there for three years. Since receiving his Bachelor's Degree at Valley City, Dick has attended the University of North Dakota and Illinois State University each for one summer and has done much graduate work at the University of Minnesota. He plans to attend the University of Minnesota again this summer.

Finally at the bottom of the list is Donald Koller who joined the Air Force in 1957 but finished up his high school education. Don has been stationed in Germany for the past three years and plans to come home this month. He was married in Detroit where he will make his home. He has three children.

Thus ends the analysis on the class of 1958 and their family and business lives since they graduated.
