Monthly Newsletter
of
La Société Canadienne Française Du Minnesota
September / Septembre 1986

Dear fellow members of La Société;

The start of another year of good camaraderie among the members of La Société is upon us. Already, plans are in the making for the year which lies ahead. As always, our members are encouraged to become involved in the activities. We are planning a French-Canadian week-end with a concert, hopefully involving Lilianne Labbé. New programs are being planned for our membership meetings. Your organization is what you wish to make of it. If you put nothing in----I guarantee you'll get nothing out!

Several times the question has come up, "How come the Scandinavians always get all the press?" I think it's the old "squeaking wheel gets the oil" syndrome. The French-Canadians may have been the first to settle in many areas of our State, but I think their gratitude and relief to no longer be living under English authority caused them to no longer "squeak". If no one knows of our existence, they can't be faulted for ignoring us. Everybody has heard of Ole and Lena, but have they ever heard about Pierre and Marie?

The time is now, for those of us who remember growing up in French-Canadian households and neighborhoods, to pass the torch of our culture on to those who would only be able to dream of such a society. The festivities of the Christmas Eve Réveillon, card parties in French, house parties with good food and singing, tourtière, the annual family blessing, prayers every evening in French and French spoken in the Church. This is the heritage we have to give. If we are silent and inactive now, when we are gone, the storybook we were a part of and helped to write will be closed to future generations. Please, PLEASE, become involved, share your life, stand proud and START TO SQUEAK!!!

Pierre Girard

OWATONNA RENDEZVOUS
10, 11 and 12 October, 1986

From the desk of Jerry Forchette:

In the 1985 "Home and Away" magazine, I found a fascinating article on Owatonna, Minn. It is evidently an old French settlement, as they hold an annual "Owatonna Rendezvous and Black Powder Shoot" each fall. The celebration is a 3 day event held over a weekend.

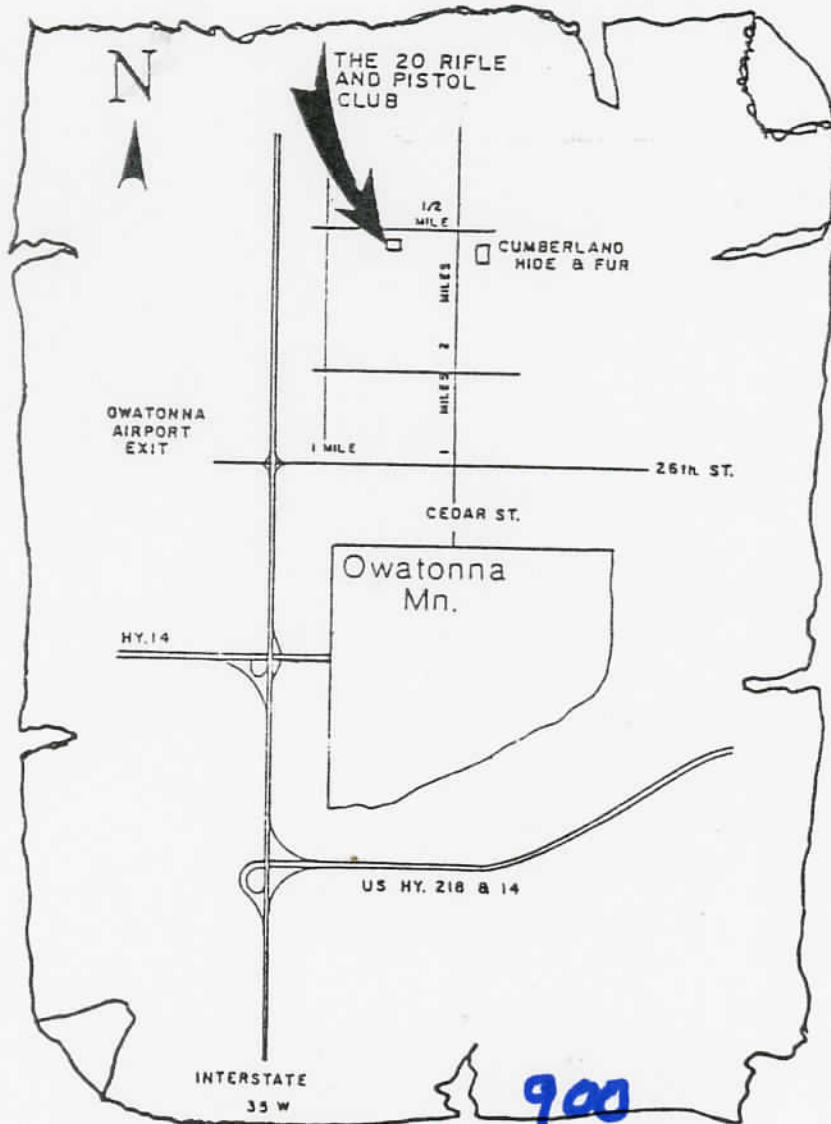

In 1985, there was a village of teepees with families dressed in pioneer clothing. Some of them were well versed in the history of the figures they portrayed, voyageur history books were prized possessions among these folks, as were the handmade leather clothing, tomahawks and necklaces of bear claws and other animal bones. Some of the events were black powder shooting and tomahawk throwing. Evening meals were taken communally, replicating staples our ancestors relied upon, like venison, wild rice and potatoes. There was a blazing campfire, setting the stage for storytelling, singing and ceremonious recognition of special members.

John Buck, of Straight River Free Trappers, informed me that they have primitive or modern camping for which there is an $8.00 fee, and to "bring trade goods". Maybe that means we could bring our wares to try to sell.

It is something to look into, if anyone is interested. Mr Buck suggests that for a single day outing, Saturday is the best day, with the most events to take in.

LES CANADIENS ERRANT STORM MILWAUKEE

For those of you who did not go along to Milwaukee for Bastille Days, this report is provided to let you all know what a good time you missed.

The chartered bus, carrying Les Canadiens Errant, our Twin Cities own french-canadian singing group, left St. Paul July 11 at 10:30 A.M. for Milwaukee's Bastille Days Festival. The heavy rains of the morning did not dampen the festivities on the bus. There was food and drink for all, and within several hours of feasting and singing, our Greek bus driver, Nick Choukalas, was converted toward a french persuasion.

The group stayed in one of the newly renovated dormitories of the Milwaukee School of Engineering. Members of La Soci  t  , not part of the singing group, also stayed there for a small nightly fee. The accomodations, while lacking in luxury, were quite comfortable and extremely secure.

The festival was unlike anything I've experienced locally. About eight blocks of the major streets were closed to permit the setting up of tents and temporary shelters, housing food and beverage vendors, arts and craft shops and booths dedicated to such things as genealogy and even fortune tellers. The environment was quite festive and the revelry carried on to the wee hours of the morning, with street musicians roaming the bazaar between the two stages on the east and west ends, where professional groups entertained off and on for the three days.

Les Canadiens Errant gave four performances, two on Saturday and two on Sunday (plus a few impromptu performances in the evening at the sidewalk cafes). The festival had been plagued by rain until "Les Errants" took the stage. Just before, and during each of the two Saturday performances, the sky cleared enough to provide brief periods of sun. The group put on a very good show and have been asked to return for next years festival. Sunday turned out to be a beautiful sunny day for the final performances and the trip home.

The full story is too long to tell in this small space, however, just ask anyone who went and they can tell you about all the events and spectacles packed into this weekend trip. We only wish that more of the members of La Soci  t   had been able to come with us, to fill the 15 empty seats on the bus.

Les Canadiens Errant will attempt to make two or three trips of this type per year, and will secure enough additional transportation room for a good group of La Soci  t   members.

DAN GENDREAU

Committee Openings

Giselle Stangler has resigned from the Social and Sunshine Committees, and is moving to New York State. We need help on these two Committees. Also, Dan Gendreau finds that he can no longer do justice to the Historical Committee, and would like to be replaced. Anyone out there that would be willing to volunteer for these positions would be warmly welcomed.
