DAY 2 — MARCH 7, 2015
A focus on disarmament and sustainability

| 7.30-8.45 Registration  9.20-10:15 Opening and Recap: Gina Torry, Executive Director of the Nobel Peace Prize Forum  9.20-10:15 Honoured Laureate: Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons, represented by Director-General Ahmet Dzümcü  10:15-10-20 Discussion with senior leaders in the field of disarmament who will shart inclusion of diverse voices—from women, from civil society—has control disarmament efforts. Moderated by Stephen Smith, Executive Editor and RadioWorks, MPR.  10:20-11:15 Featured Speaker: Adama Dieng, Under-Secretary-General and Special Adviser of the Secretary-General on the Prevention of Genocide  11:15-11:45 Office break  11:45-1:15 Dialogue Sessions  Chemical Disarmament after Syria: What Happens Next?  Dialogue Speakers  Chemical Disarmament after Syria: What Happens Next?  Dialogue session led by Peter Sawczak, Head, Government Relations and branch, Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons, with Pau Environmental Security and Sustainability, Green Cross International.  Social Enterprise in Eastern Congo  Imagine No-Cost, Open Online Education for All  Giving Citizens a Say: National Dialogues and Peacebuilding in the Central African Republic, Mail and Beyond  The Role of Private Diplomacy Actors in Peace Mediation  Managing Diversity and Inter-Ethnic Relations in Peacemaking: Hedding Cats and Outling Pes  Minnesota 2015: Global Summit on Democracy for Sustainable Future: Tools, Solutions and Best Practices  Minnesota 2015: Global Summit on Democracy for Sustainable Future: Tools, Solutions and Best Practices  Dialogue session led by Partnership for Change, with David V. Hamilton, Summit Director, Thomas Hanson, Diplomat in Residence at the Alventh Future: Tools, Solutions and Best Practices  | buted to strengthening Host of American  Ing the Central d Professor, Réseau eal.  Political Affairs Walker, Director,  gy, United Nations Food state Mark Ritchie. |
|--|---|
| Peace Prize Forum  9:20-10:15 Honoured Laureate: Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons, represented by Director-General Ahmet Uzimcii  10:15-10:20 10:20-11:15 Featured Speaker: Adama Dieng, Under-Secretary-General and Special Adviser of the Secretary-General on the Prevention of Genocide  10:15-11:15 Coffee break  11:45-11:15  | buted to strengthening Host of American  Ing the Central d Professor, Réseau eal.  Political Affairs Walker, Director,  gy, United Nations Food state Mark Ritchie. |
| Chemical Weapons, represented by Director-General Ahmet Dizümcü inclusion of diverse voices—from women, from civil society—has contridisarmament efforts. Moderated by Stephen Smith, Executive Editor and RadioWorks, MPR.  10:10-11:15  Featured Speaker: Adama Dieng, Under-Secretary-General and Special Adviser of the Secretary-General and Special Adviser of the Secretary-General on the Prevention of Genocide and current situations, including African Republic. Moderated by Marie-Joëlle Zahar, Research Director and francophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montre Coffee break  11:45-11:5  Dialogue Speakers  Dialo | buted to strengthening Host of American  Ing the Central d Professor, Réseau eal.  Political Affairs Walker, Director,  gy, United Nations Food state Mark Ritchie. |
| 10:20-11:15 Featured Speaker: Adama Dieng, Under-Secretary-General and Special Adviser of the Secretary-General on the Prevention of Genocide  11:15-11:45 Coffee break  11:45-1:15  Dialogue Sessions  Chemical Disarmament after Syria: What Happens Next?  Dialogue Session led by Peter Sawczak, Head, Government Relations and branch, Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons, with Pau Environmental Security and Sustainability, Green Cross International.  Dialogue session led by Martin Frick, Director, Climate Change and Ener and Agricultural Organisation (FAO) and former Minnesota Secretary of S Moderated by Tom Crann, Host of All Things Considered for MPR News.  Social Enterprise in Eastern Congo Dialogue session led by Igor Tulchinsky, CEO of WorldQuant and Founder to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online  Giving Citizens a Say: National Dialogues and Peacebuilding in the Central African Republic, Mali and Beyond  The Role of Private Diplomacy Actors in Peace Mediation  Managing Diversity and Inter-Ethnic Relations in Peacemaking: Herding Cats and Cutting Pies  Minnesota 2015: Global Summit on Democracy for Sustainable Future: Tools, Solutions and Best Practices  Dialogue session led by Partnership for Change, with David V. Hamilton, Summit Director, Thomas Hanson, Diplomat in Residence at the Alworth International Affairs, UMN/Senior Advisor to Partnership for Change, Ing.  | d Professor, Réseaueal.  Political Affairs Walker, Director,  gy, United Nations Food State Mark Ritchie.   |
| and Special Adviser of the Secretary-General on the Prevention of Genocide  African Republic. Moderated by Marie-Joëlle Zahar, Research Director an francophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montr (Chemical Disarmament after Syria: What Happens Next?  Dialogue Speakers  Dia | d Professor, Réseaueal.  Political Affairs Walker, Director,  gy, United Nations Food State Mark Ritchie.   |
| Dialogue Sessions  Chemical Disarmament after Syria: What Happens Next?  Dialogue session led by Peter Sawczak, Head, Government Relations and branch, Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons, with Pau Environmental Security and Sustainability, Green Cross International.  Grounding Security: Land, Lives, Peace  Dialogue session led by Martin Frick, Director, Climate Change and Ener and Agricultural Organisation (FAO) and former Minnesota Secretary of Some Moderated by Tom Crann, Host of All Things Considered for MPR News.  Social Enterprise in Eastern Congo  Dialogue session led by Ashish Gadnis, Chief Executive Officer, Forward International Dialogues and Peacebuilding in the Central African Republic, Mali and Beyond  Dialogue session led by Marie-Joëlle Zahar, Research Director and Profest francophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montrophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Ottawa.  Dialogue session led by John Packer, Director, Human Rights Research a University of Ottawa.  Dialogue session led by Partnership for Change, with David V. Hamilton, Summit Director, Thomas Hanson, Diplomat in Residen | Walker, Director,gy, United Nations FoodState Mark Ritchie.   |
| Chemical Disarmament after Syria: What Happens Next?  Dialogue session led by Peter Sawczak, Head, Government Relations and branch, Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons, with Pau Environmental Security and Sustainability, Green Cross International.  Dialogue session led by Martin Frick, Director, Climate Change and Energand Agricultural Organisation (FAO) and former Minnesota Secretary of S Moderated by Tom Crann, Host of All Things Considered for MPR News.  Dialogue session led by Ashish Gadnis, Chief Executive Officer, Forward Dialogue session led by Igor Tulchinsky, CEO of WorldQuant and Founder to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online of the Central African Republic, Mali and Beyond  The Role of Private Diplomacy Actors in Peace Mediation  Managing Diversity and Inter-Ethnic Relations in Peacemaking: Herding Cats and Cutting Pies  Minnesota 2015: Global Summit on Democracy for Sustainable Future: Tools, Solutions and Best Practices  Dialogue session led by Partnership for Change, with David V. Hamilton, Summit Director, Thomas Hanson, Diplomat in Residence at the Alworth International Affairs, UMN/Senior Advisor to Partnership for Change, Ing   | Walker, Director,gy, United Nations FoodState Mark Ritchie.   |
| branch, Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons, with Pau Environmental Security and Sustainability, Green Cross International.  Dialogue session led by Martin Frick, Director, Climate Change and Ener and Agricultural Organisation (FAO) and former Minnesota Secretary of S Moderated by Tom Crann, Host of All Things Considered for MPR News.  Social Enterprise in Eastern Congo  Dialogue session led by Ashish Gadnis, Chief Executive Officer, Forward Imagine No-Cost, Open Online Education for All  Dialogue session led by Igor Tulchinsky, CEO of WorldQuant and Founder to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online  Giving Citizens a Say: National Dialogues and Peacebuilding in the Central African Republic, Mali and Beyond  Dialogue session led by Marie-Joëlle Zahar, Research Director and Profes francophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montr Department of Political Affairs Mediation Support Unit Standby Team Ex  Dialogue session led by Tuija Talvitie, Executive Director, Crisis Manager  Managing Diversity and Inter-Ethnic Relations in Peacemaking: Herding Cats and Cutting Pies  Dialogue session led by John Packer, Director, Human Rights Research a University of Ottawa.  Dialogue session led by Partnership for Change, with David V. Hamilton, Summit Director, Thomas Hanson, Diplomat in Residence at the Alworth International Affairs, UMN/Senior Advisor to Partnership for Change, Ing   | Walker, Director,gy, United Nations FoodState Mark Ritchie.   |
| and Agricultural Organisation (FAO) and former Minnesota Secretary of S Moderated by Tom Crann, Host of All Things Considered for MPR News.  Dialogue session led by Ashish Gadnis, Chief Executive Officer, Forward International Affairs, University of S Moderated by Tom Crann, Host of All Things Considered for MPR News.  Dialogue session led by Ashish Gadnis, Chief Executive Officer, Forward International Affairs of All Things Considered for MPR News.  Dialogue session led by Igor Tulchinsky, CEO of WorldQuant and Founder to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online  Dialogue session led by Marie-Joëlle Zahar, Research Director and Profest francophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montr Department of Political Affairs Mediation Support Unit Standby Team Ex  Dialogue session led by Tuija Talvitie, Executive Director, Crisis Manager  Dialogue session led by John Packer, Director, Human Rights Research a University of Ottawa.  Dialogue session led by Partnership for Change, with David V. Hamilton, Summit Director, Thomas Hanson, Diplomat in Residence at the Alworth International Affairs, UMN/Senior Advisor to Partnership for Change, Ing   | State Mark Ritchie.   |
| Dialogue session led by Igor Tulchinsky, CEO of WorldQuant and Founder to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online the Central African Republic, Mali and Beyond  Dialogue session led by Marie-Joëlle Zahar, Research Director and Profest francophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montr Department of Political Affairs Mediation Support Unit Standby Team Extended The Role of Private Diplomacy Actors in Peace Mediation  Managing Diversity and Inter-Ethnic Relations in Peacemaking: Herding Cats and Cutting Pies  Minnesota 2015: Global Summit on Democracy for Sustainable Future: Tools, Solutions and Best Practices  Dialogue session led by John Packer, Director, Human Rights Research a University of Ottawa.  Dialogue session led by Partnership for Change, with David V. Hamilton, Summit Director, Thomas Hanson, Diplomat in Residence at the Alworth International Affairs, UMN/Senior Advisor to Partnership for Change, Ing   | Hindsight.  |
| Dialogue session led by Igor Tulchinsky, CEO of WorldQuant and Founder to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online the Central African Republic, Mali and Beyond  Dialogue session led by Marie-Joëlle Zahar, Research Director and Profest francophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montro Department of Political Affairs Mediation Support Unit Standby Team Extorior Dialogue session led by Tuija Talvitie, Executive Director, Crisis Manager University of Ottawa.  Minnesota 2015: Global Summit on Democracy for Sustainable Future: Tools, Solutions and Best Practices  Dialogue session led by Igor Tulchinsky, CEO of WorldQuant and Founder to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no or low-cost online to focus on how technology can allow us to provide no focus on how technology can allow us to provide no focus on how technology can allow us to provide no focus on how technology can allow us to provide no focus on how technology can allow us to provide no focus on how technology can allow us to provide no focus on how technology can allow us to provide no focus on how technology can allow us to provide  |   |
| the Central African Republic, Mali and Beyond  francophone de recherche sur les opérations de paix, University of Montro Department of Political Affairs Mediation Support Unit Standby Team Ex  The Role of Private Diplomacy Actors in Peace Mediation  Managing Diversity and Inter-Ethnic Relations in Peacemaking: Herding Cats and Cutting Pies  Dialogue session led by John Packer, Director, Human Rights Research a University of Ottawa.  Minnesota 2015: Global Summit on Democracy for Sustainable Future: Tools, Solutions and Best Practices  Dialogue session led by John Packer, Director, Human Rights Research a University of Ottawa.  Dialogue session led by Partnership for Change, with David V. Hamilton, Summit Director, Thomas Hanson, Diplomat in Residence at the Alworth International Affairs, UMN/Senior Advisor to Partnership for Change, Ing   | WorldQuant University education for all.  |
| Managing Diversity and Inter-Ethnic Relations in Peacemaking: Herding Cats and Cutting Pies  Dialogue session led by John Packer, Director, Human Rights Research a University of Ottawa.  Minnesota 2015: Global Summit on Democracy for Sustainable Future: Tools, Solutions and Best Practices  Dialogue session led by Partnership for Change, with David V. Hamilton, Summit Director, Thomas Hanson, Diplomat in Residence at the Alworth International Affairs, UMN/Senior Advisor to Partnership for Change, Ing   | eal and United Nations  |
| Herding Cats and Cutting Pies  University of Ottawa.  Minnesota 2015: Global Summit on Democracy for Sustainable Future: Tools, Solutions and Best Practices  Dialogue session led by Partnership for Change, with David V. Hamilton, Summit Director, Thomas Hanson, Diplomat in Residence at the Alworth International Affairs, UMN/Senior Advisor to Partnership for Change, Ing  | nent Initiative.  |
| Future: Tools, Solutions and Best Practices  Summit Director, Thomas Hanson, Diplomat in Residence at the Alworth International Affairs, UMN/Senior Advisor to Partnership for Change, Ing   | nd Education Centre,  |
| Partnership for Change and Shiloh Fetzek, Director of Content for the "N   | Institute forrid Stange, Founder of   |
| Should It Be Legal to Make a Profit Selling Weapons of War?  Dialogue session by Larry Johnson, immediate past President of Veteran Steve McKeown, Founder of Veterans for Peace in Minneapolis; and Jack Professor of Peace and Justice, St. Thomas University.   | s for Peace Minneapolis;A. Nelson-Pallmeyer   |
| 1:15-2:15 Lunch Boxed lunches available at Radisson Blu  |   |
| 2:15-2:30 Featured Speaker: Courtney Radsch: Advocacy Director, Committee to Protect Journalists  Candlelight moment of silence for journalists killed in conflict   |   |
| 2:30-2:35 Introduction of Featured Speakers by Peace Scholar   |   |
| 2:35-3:30 Featured Speakers: Imam Muhammad Ashafa and Pastor James Wuye. Moderated by Reverend Mark Hanson Northern Nigeria. Today, they work together to teach warring religious youth a conflicts peacefully. But they did not start out as peacemakers. Over a decar Pastor James were mortal enemies, intent on killing one another in the name  | nilitias to resolve theirde ago, Imam Ashafa and  |
| 3:30-4:00 Coffee break   |   |
| 4:00-4:05 Introduction of Featured Speaker by Peace Scholar  |   |
| 4:05-5:00 Featured Speaker: Steven Pinker, author of The Better Angels of Our Nature "The Better Angels of Our Nature: Why Violence Has Declined" is a 2011 be arguing that violence in the world has declined both in the long run and in "the better angels of our nature" stems from US President Lincoln's first in uses the phrase as a metaphor for four human motivations that, he writes from violence and towards cooperation and altruism," namely: empathy, so sense," and reason. Moderated by Tom Crann, Host of All Things Consider   |   |
| 5:00-5:15 Introduction of Feature Speaker by Peace Scholar   | n the short. The phrasenaugural address. Pinkers, can "orient us awayself-control, the "moral   |

| 5:05-5:20 | Featured Speaker: Chief Arvol Looking Horse, 19th GenerationKeeper of the Sacred White Buffalo Calf Pipe and Leader of theLakota Dakota Nakota Oyate, the Great Sioux Nation | Closing of Day 2 of the Nobel Peace Prize Forum, focused on Disarmament and Sustainability  |
|-----------|--|---|
| 5:20-6:20 | Delegates Soirée   | Delegates cocktail hour featuring a performance by Jordanian Virtuoso Vocalist Farah Siraj, the "Norah Jones" of the Middle East. |
| 6:20-8:20 | Documentary Food Chains Produced by Sanjay Rawal, Eva Longoria, Eric Schlosser, Forest Whitaker   | Film followed by discussion with producers and those featured in the film.  |

DAY 3 — MARCH 8, 2015 A focus on issues related to inclusivity

| ГІМЕ        | SESSION — Scandinavian Ballroom   | THEME   |
|-------------|---|---|
| 9:00-9:15   | Opening and Recap: Gina Torry, Executive Director of the NobelPeace Prize Forum   | Welcome and introduction  |
| 9:15-9:20   |   | Introduction of the panel by Peace Scholar  |
| 9:20-10:15  | Moderated Panel: Toward Inclusive Disarmament: the voices of women and civil society: Bonnie Jenkins, U.S. Department of State Coordinator for Threat Reduction Programs, Jonathan Granoff, President, Global Security Institute; and Paul Walker, Director, Environmental Security and Sustainability, Green Cross International | A moderated discussion with senior leaders in the field of disarmament who will share views on how the inclusion of diverse voices—from women, from civil society—has contributed to strengthening disarmament efforts. Moderated by Stephen Smith, Executive Editor and Host of American RadioWorks, MPR.                          |
| 10:15-10:20 |   | Introduction of the panel by Peace Scholar  |
| 10:20-11:00 | Moderated Panel: How We Lead Matters - Women, Business and Peace: Roxanne Mankin Cason, Chief Executive Officer, Cason Family Foundation, Ingrid Stange, Founder of Partnership for Change and Tuija Talvitie, Executive Director, Crisis Management Initiative.  | The panel will discuss how women business leaders are promoting peace and human rights, often with a focus on empowering women and girls.   |
| 11:00-11:30 | Coffee break  |   |
| 11:30-1:00  | Dialogue Sessions   | Dialogue Speakers   |
|             | Inclusive Security: Challenging—and changing—the face of peacebuilding  | Dialogue session with Dr. Atema Eclai, Kenyan Activist, Managing Partner for the Chefs4Kids Foundation; Jacqueline O'Neill, Director, The Institute for Inclusive Security; John Packer, Director, Human Rights Research and Education Centre, University of Ottawa; and Carina Van Vliet, Senior Advisor, Nobel Peace Prize Forum. |
|             | The Imperative for Ending Humanity's Greatest Threat: Nuclear Weapons   | Dialogue session led by Jonathan Granoff, President, Global Security Institute with Paul Walker, Director, Environmental Security and Sustainability, Green Cross International.  |
|             | Women - Food Security - Peace and Conflict  | Dialogue session led by Lois A. Herman, Coordinator WUNRN, Women's UN Report Network with Alexandra Spieldoch, Executive Director, Compatible Technology International.   |
|             | War Child: Growing Up in Adolf Hitler's Germany   | Dialogue session led by Annelee Woodstrom, author who will discuss Adolf Hitler's indoctrination machine as experienced by ordinary German citizens.  |
|             | Social Entrepreneurship: Turning Social Need into SocialCapital   | Dialogue session led by Becky Norvang, Peace Committee Coordinator, the American College of Norway with Anita Svendheim and Lene Tollefsen Rodegård, from the Midlands Children Hope Project.   |
| 1:00-2:00   | Lunch   | Boxed lunches available for purchase at Radisson Blu  |
| 2:00-2:05   |   | Introduction of the panel by Peace Scholar  |
| 2:05-3:00   | Protecting our Sacred Women (Mother Earth and Indigenous Women)   | Session on Challenges Facing Native American Girls and Women in the Dakotas, Minnesota and Canada, including Sex trafficking and Disappearances.  |
| 3:00-3:30   | Coffee break  |   |
| 3:30-3:35   |   | Introduction of Feature Speaker by Peace Scholar  |
| 3:35-4:30   | Featured Speaker: Sanam Anderlini, Co-founder of theInternational Civil Society Action Network  | A leading advocate, researcher, and writer on the issue of women's protection and participation in peacebuilding, Sanam Anderlini will discuss women and extremism and links to peacebuilding. Moderated by Stephen Smith, Executive Editor and Host of American RadioWorks, MPR.   |
| 4:30-4:45   | Introduction of new Peace Scholars  | President Paul C. Pribbenow introduces the 2015 Peace Scholars.   |
| 4:45-5:00   | Paul C. Pribbenow, President of Augsburg College  | Closing Remarks   |
| 5:00-5:10   | Performance by the Calliope Women's Chorus of Minnesota   | Musical Dedication to Peace   |